

"... one of the most effective, long-term solutions in minimizing both blue-green algal blooms and their associated production of cyanotoxins is to reduce the phosphorus loads entering Lake Hopatcong."